25 PROTECTIVE ORDER

26 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between Plaintiffs, 27 GRANT WOLAK (Plaintiff(s)”), and Defendant(s) NUTRIBULLET, LLC, CAPITAL 28 BRANDS, LLC, HOMELAND HOUSEWARES, LLC, CALL TO ACTION, LLC

1 AND NUTRILIVING (“Defendants”) (collectively the Plaintiffs and Defendant(s) are 2 referred to as the “Parties” and each individually as a “Party”), through their counsel, 3 that this Stipulated Protective Order shall govern the handling of any information
4 produced or disclosed by any Party or non-Party in the above captioned matter
5 (“Action”), including documents, depositions, deposition exhibits, interrogatory 6 responses, responses to requests for admission, and other pretrial proceedings.

7 GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT:

8 This action is likely to involve trade secrets and other valuable research, 9 development, commercial, financial, technical and/or proprietary information for which 10 special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than 11 prosecution of this action is warranted. Such confidential and proprietary materials and 12 information consist of, among other things, confidential business or financial 13 information, information regarding confidential business practices, or other confidential 14 research, development, or commercial information (including information implicating 15 privacy rights of third parties), information otherwise generally unavailable to the 16 public, or which may be privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under state 17 or federal statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common law. Accordingly, to expedite 18 the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over 19 confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect information the parties are 20 entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the parties are permitted reasonable 21 necessary uses of such material in preparation for and in the conduct of trial, to address 22 their handling at the end of the litigation, and serve the ends of justice, a protective 23 order for such information is justified in this matter. It is the intent of the parties that 24 information will not be designated as confidential for tactical reasons and that nothing 25 be so designated without a good faith belief that it has been maintained in a 26 confidential, non-public manner, and there is good cause why it should not be part of 27 the public record of this case.

28 1. Any Party or non-Party may designate as confidential any documents,

1 materials, or information which the designating Party considers in good faith to contain 2 non-public, confidential or trade secret (information and which is disclosed through 3 formal or informal discovery in this Action (hereinafter “Confidential Material”) 4 including, but not limited to, any written response to interrogatories and requests for 5 admission, documents produced in response to requests for production of documents or 6 subpoenas, deposition transcripts including exhibits, and all information contained in 7 those materials (collectively “Discovery Materials”). The Parties reserve their rights to 8 jointly amend this Stipulation and to supplement the above list as additional categories 9 of Confidential Materials arise through the course of discovery.

10 2. Documents produced or written responses served in this Action in response to 11 a request for production, or otherwise, relating to matters that the designating Party 12 deems to be Confidential Material shall be designated as such at the time of production 13 or service of the response(s). Each document or page of a written response so 14 designated shall be marked with the word “Confidential.”

15 3. Any Party may designate certain Discovery Materials as “Confidential – 16 Attorneys’ Eyes Only” (hereinafter, “Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material”). This 17 designation shall be limited to such Discovery Materials that the designating Party 18 believes, in good faith, contain highly sensitive information, the disclosure of which is 19 likely to cause harm to the competitive position of the designating Party or the broader 20 disclosure of which would violate any Party or third parties’ constitutional right to 21 financial privacy. All Attorneys’ Eyes Only Materials are included within the meaning 22 of “Confidential” information as used in this Protective Order and, except with respect 23 to the classes of individuals who may view Attorneys’ Eyes Only Materials, all the 24 provisions set forth in the Protective Order that apply to Confidential Materials also 25 apply to Attorneys’ Eyes Only Materials. Documents produced or written responses 26 served in this Action in response to a request for production, or otherwise, relating to 27 matters that the designating Party deems to be Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material shall be 28 designated as such. Each document or page of a written response so designated shall be

1 marked with the words “Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

2 4. The production of any document, evidence or testimony not marked as 3 Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only shall not constitute a waiver of any 4 claim of confidentiality that may attach to the document and such materials.

5 5. If any Party or non-Party inadvertently fails to designate any document(s) or 6 written response(s) to a discovery request as Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only 7 Material at the time of production or service of the response, it may correct its error by 8 notifying opposing counsel in writing and providing opposing counsel substitute copies 9 of any document(s) or response(s) appropriately marked as Confidential or Confidential 10 – Attorneys’ Eyes Only. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the substitute copies, the 11 receiving Party shall return the previously unmarked items and all copies thereof.
12 Similarly, if any Party inadvertently designates any document(s) or written response(s) 13 as Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material, it may correct its error by notifying 14 opposing counsel in writing and providing opposing counsel with substitute copies of 15 the document(s) or response(s) without the Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ 16 Eyes Only designation. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the substitute copies, the 17 receiving Party shall return the previously marked items and all copies thereof.

18 6. The receipt of any document, transcript, thing, or information designated 19 Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only shall not be construed as an 20 agreement by the receiving Party that any such document, transcript, thing, or 21 information is in fact Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material, and shall not 22 operate as a waiver of the receiving Party’s right to challenge any such designation as 23 provided herein.

24 7. A Party may designate as Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material, the 25 whole or a portion of any deposition testimony, regardless by whom given, which 26 contains or discloses Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material. The Party 27 designating any portion of a deposition as Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only 28 Material may do so on the record at the deposition or shall serve a written statement on

1 the Parties and court reporter specifying the portions of the deposition which are to be 2 designated as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material within thirty (30) days 3 after receipt of the deposition transcript. Except as otherwise designated on the record, 4 the entire transcript shall be deemed Confidential prior to the expiration of the thirty-5 day period. If a document designated as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material 6 is used as an exhibit at a deposition, that document and the deposition testimony 7 concerning it shall be deemed Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material regardless 8 of whether a Party makes any formal designation thereof.

9 8. A Party shall have the right to have the following persons excluded from a 10 deposition before the taking of testimony designated as Confidential Material or before 11 the introduction of documents or exhibits designated as Confidential Material: all 12 persons except the court reporter, counsel of record, the Parties' experts, the deponent 13 and the Parties (or their representatives who are involved in the handling, prosecution or 14 defense of this Action). Additionally, a Party shall have the right to exclude the Parties 15 (or their representatives) before the taking of testimony designated as Attorneys' Eyes 16 Only or before introducing exhibits designated as Attorneys' Eyes Only.

17 9. Confidential Material may be disclosed, given, shown, made available, or 18 communicated only to the following individuals and entities (and then only for purposes 19 of mediation or the prosecution or defense of this Action):

- 20 (a) the Court and court personnel;
- 21 (b) mediators, referees, or other neutral designees of the Court or the Parties 22 for the purpose of dispute resolution;
- 23 (c) court reporters who record depositions or other testimony in this action;
- 24 (d) outside counsel of record for the Parties, as well as their paralegals,
25 secretarial and clerical assistants, and employees of such counsel who are 26 actively working on this matter, including independent contractors 27 providing copy services or litigation support for the Parties;
- 28 (e) the Parties and their employees and insurers who are actively involved in

1 the prosecution or defense of this Action;

2 (f) independent experts that have been retained by the Parties in connection
3 with this Action;

4 (g) any individual or entity expressly named in the particular Confidential
5 Material as having authored or received the information contained in that 6 Confidential Material; and

7 (h) any other person or Party upon the written agreement of the Party or non-8 party that designated the Confidential Material (which agreement may be 9 recorded in a deposition or other transcript), or pursuant to court order after 10 regularly-noticed motion.

11 10. Attorneys' Eyes Only Material may be disclosed only to the following 12 persons:

13 (a) the Court and court personnel in accordance with paragraph 19 herein 14 below;

15 (b) mediators, referees, or other neutral designees of the Court or the Parties
16 for the purpose of dispute resolution;

17 (c) court reporters who record depositions or other testimony in this action;

18 (d) outside counsel of record for the Parties, as well as their paralegals, 19 secretarial and clerical assistants, and employees of such counsel who are 20 actively working on this matter,

21 (e) independent experts that have been retained by the Parties in connection
22 with this Action;

23 (f) any individual or entity expressly named in the particular Confidential
24 Material as having authored or received the information contained in that 25 Confidential Material; and

26 (g) any other person or Party upon the written agreement of the Party or non-27 Party that designated the Attorneys' Eyes Only Material (which agreement 28 may be recorded in a deposition or other transcript), or pursuant to court

1 order after regularly-noticed motion.

2 11. In the event of a disclosure of Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only 3 Materials to a person not authorized to have had such disclosure made to him or her 4 under the provisions of this Stipulation and Protective Order, and in the event the Party 5 responsible for having made or allowed such disclosure becomes aware of such 6 disclosure, that Party shall immediately (a) notify in writing, counsel for the Party 7 whose Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material has thus been disclosed of all 8 relevant information concerning the nature and circumstances of such disclosure (b) use 9 its best efforts to retrieve all Confidential or Attorneys Eyes Only Materials (c) inform 10 the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of 11 this Order and (d) request such person or persons to execute "Exhibit A" that is attached 12 hereto. The responsible Party shall also take all reasonable measures promptly to 13 ensure that no further or greater unauthorized disclosure of Confidential or Attorneys' 14 Eyes Only Material is made by anyone.

15 12. Before Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material may be disclosed 16 to third-party consultants and independent experts that are being used or will be used in 17 connection with this Action, such persons must execute a written Confidentiality 18 Agreement, in the form set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto ("Confidentiality 19 Agreement"), acknowledging and agreeing not to discuss or otherwise disclose any 20 material designated Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only with or to any 21 person except person permitted to receive such Discovery Materials pursuant hereto, 22 who if appropriate, has executed a Confidentiality Agreement. In the event that the 23 person executes the written agreement, the counsel disclosing the Confidential or 24 Attorneys' Eyes Only Materials shall maintain the executed written agreement.

25 13. All Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material provided in discovery 26 or otherwise in connection with the above-captioned Action shall be used for the 27 prosecution or defense of this Action, and for no other purpose. Confidential or 28 Attorneys' Eyes Only Material shall not be used or disclosed for any business,

1 commercial or competitive purpose.

2 14. Nothing herein shall prevent any of the Parties from using Confidential
3 or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material in any trial in this Action or from seeking further 4 protection with respect to the use of any Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material 5 in any trial in this Action. Means to preserve the confidentiality of Confidential or 6 Attorneys' Eyes Only Material presented at any trial shall be considered and, to the 7 extent reasonably possible, implemented in advance of such trial.

8 15. A Party shall not be obligated to challenge the designation of any 9 documents or information as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material at the time 10 the designation is made, and a failure to do so shall not preclude a subsequent challenge 11 to the designation. In the event of a dispute with respect to the designation of any 12 discovery material as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, counsel shall 13 attempt to resolve the dispute on an informal basis before presenting the matter to the 14 Court for resolution. If a resolution cannot be reached, the Party challenging the 15 Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only designation shall send a written 16 notice to the designating Party identifying the challenged Confidential or Attorneys' 17 Eyes Only Material, stating the reasons that the Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only 18 Material is being challenged, and giving notice that the Party will move the Court to 19 remove the designation of such information as "Confidential" or "Confidential – 20 Attorneys' Eyes Only." Until such time as the challenge is resolved, such Confidential 21 or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material shall be maintained in accordance with this Stipulated 22 Protective Order.

23 16. Nothing in this Stipulation and Protective Order shall be deemed in any 24 way to restrict the use of documents or information that are lawfully obtained or 25 publicly available to a Party independently from discovery in this action, whether or not 26 the same material has been obtained during the course of discovery in the action and 27 whether or not such documents or information have been designated as Confidential or 28 Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only.

1 17. This Stipulated Protective Order may be modified at any time for good 2 cause shown, and shall not preclude any application to the Court seeking greater or 3 lesser protection for specific documents or seeking termination of the protection 4 provided hereunder for specific material or information.

5 18. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall limit or affect the right 6 of a Party to disclose or to authorize disclosure of Discovery Materials produced by that 7 Party.

8 19. All documents, transcripts, pleadings, motions, and other Discovery 9 Materials filed or lodged with the Court comprising, containing, or reflecting Attorneys' 10 Eyes Only Material shall be filed or lodged under seal pursuant to the Federal Rules of 11 Civil Procedure and or Local Rules, and shall designate the particular aspects of such 12 filings or lodging that contain Attorneys' Eyes Only Material.

13 20. The Parties shall meet and confer regarding the procedures for use of 14 any Confidential Materials or Attorney's Eyes Only Materials at trial and shall move 15 the Court for entry of an appropriate order.

16 21. No later than thirty (30) days from the unappealed or unappealable final 17 resolution or settlement of this action, all Confidential and Attorneys' Eyes Only 18 Material, including copies, extracts, or summaries of such materials, within the 19 possession, custody or control of counsel for a Party shall be delivered to counsel for 20 the Party who produced the Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, or in lieu 21 thereof, shall certify in writing that all Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material 22 has been destroyed. Notwithstanding the above, counsel of record may retain a set of 23 pleadings, exhibits, and their own attorney and consultant work product for archival 24 purposes, including portions of any such papers that contain or disclose Confidential or 25 Attorneys' Eyes Only Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute 26 Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material remain subject to this Stipulated 27 Protective Order.

28 22. Nothing in this Stipulated and Protective Order shall be deemed to limit,

1 prejudice, or waive any right of the Parties: (a) to resist discovery with respect to, or to 2 seek to obtain additional or different protection for, material claimed to be protected 3 work product or privileged under federal or California law, material as to which a Party 4 claims a legal obligation not to disclose, or Material not required to be provided 5 pursuant to federal or California law; (b) to seek to modify or obtain relief from any 6 aspect of this Protective Order; (c) to object to the use, relevance or admissibility at trial 7 or otherwise of any material, whether or not designated in whole or in part as 8 Confidential Material governed by this Protective Order; or (d) otherwise to require that 9 discovery be conducted according to governing laws and rules.

10 23. This Stipulated Protective Order shall survive the final conclusion of this 11 Action and continue in full force and effect, and the Court shall retain jurisdiction to 12 enforce this Stipulated Protective Order.

13 By executing a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order, each of the attorneys 14 named below and the Parties they represent undertake to abide by and be bound by its 15 provisions.

16 24. The Defendants shall file a fully executed copy this Stipulated Protective 17 Order with the Court within five (5) court days of receipt of the executed Stipulated 18 Protective Order from Plaintiffs.
